FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME “The people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority and not as the scribes.”

Mark 1:22 Listening to the authority of Jesus’ teachings helps us not to be confused by the perceived ‘wisdom’ of the world. The world focuses only on self, while the authority of Jesus teaches a steward is to think of others rather than oneself.

MARRIAGE MOMENTS Ways to Turn Your Beloved Off-Let obsessions distract you from being present to your beloved. How clean does the house really need to be? Hobbies are fun but can steal together time. Perfectionism can rob you of laughing together at your mistakes.

PARENTING POINTERS “You are not your children! Your success as a parent does not depend on their success. Resist the urge to take credit for your child’s successes, lest you also take the blame for their mistakes.” (Parenting Your Adult Child at www.SusanVogt.net)

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

What kind of “unclean spirits” afflicting some people do I encounter? Do I risk becoming unclean myself when encountering those who are afflicted? Can I overcome that risk?
